Emergency Order Concerning the Use of Face Coverings Has Been Lifted

MANITOU SPRINGS CO – The City of Manitou Springs has lifted its Emergency Order Concerning the Use of Face Coverings. Therefore, meaning that face coverings are no longer required within all local businesses and outside while within 6’ of others, per local order. The City will continue to follow the State of Colorado’s guidelines and mandates.

The decision to require face coverings is available to our individual businesses, and we are strongly urging our residents and visitors to respect their rules and guidelines.
