City of Manitou Springs Partners with UCHealth to Bring Behavioral Health Support to Manitou Springs at No Cost

MANITOU SPRINGS CO – To help our staff and community process the tragedies that took place involving an officer-involved shooting on Monday night, the City of Manitou Springs is partnering with UCHealth to bring behavioral health support to the Manitou Springs community - at no cost.

Today (4/12) at City Hall, from 12PM-5PM, UCHealth behavioral health personnel will be offering their services free of charge for anybody who wants to receive them.

The same services will be provided tomorrow (4/13), from 9AM-5PM, at the same location.

We greatly appreciate UCHealth's assistance to help our community process and grieve during this difficult time.
