MSPD To Host an Open House (with Pizza!)

MANITOU SPRINGS CO – The Manitou Springs Police Department will be hosting an opportunity for community members to meet their neighborhood officers and to learn about fentanyl from subject matter experts. This meeting will be located at City Hall (606. Manitou Ave.) from 6 – 8 p.m. on April 13th, and the police department will be providing pizza for all in attendance!

Officers will be able to show you crime data in your neighborhood, discuss best practices with you, and much more! In addition, a table will be designated to discuss the harsh reality of fentanyl and the impact it is having on a local scale.

The Manitou Springs Police Department hopes to see you there, so please mark your calendars!
